Birth defects are the country's second largest killer, striking more than 250,000 people a year

Hundreds are fighting this killer by contributing to the Mothers' March Against Birth Defects during January. In the past, Marchers have gone from door to door collecting contributions. This year they'll go from neighbor to neighbor instead, Upland chairman Julie

A collection envelope will be passed through each neighborhood so families can decide in private whether and how much to donate, she said.

Residents who do not receive circulating envelopes may send contributions to the Mothers' March Headquarters, 1923 N. E St., San Bernardino Funds raised by the Mothers' March support prevention and correction of birth defects.

One of every 10 babies is born seriously handicapped, either mentally or physically, said Pansy Holly, county March of Dimes director Poor nutrition is a major cause of defects. More than one-half of the 50,000 babies who die each year weigh less than five pounds at birth, often because of the mother's poor diet, Mrs. Emrich said.

These small babies also have a greater chance of birth injury, breathing problems and mental and physical

Good prenatal care is the most important step in preventing birth defects, said Kathy Knox, volunteer services director for the San Bernardino County chapter of the March of Dimes

Women should have a prenatal checkup as soon as they suspect they are pregnant because the first three months are the most crucial for the developing

Modeling classes set at Magnolia

Girls 5-18 years old will learn how to coordinate their wardrobes and colors to accent their hair, eyes and skin tones in modeling workshops offered at Magnolia Recreation Center, Upland.

Instructor JoAnn Fitzgibbons, has had a wide experience in the fashion field of modeling, coordinating and television. She has directed national beauty pageants and helped develop cover girls Instructions about modeling techniques on the runway, tearoom, and mannequin will be offered.

Before and after pictures will be taken of the girls.

Other sessions will include hair styles skin care, make-up, the art of conversations and the importance of friends.

Girls will perform before a live audience in a fashion show after completing the 8-week course. Classes are held Thursdays from 4:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. and from 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. For reservations, telephone the Upland Recreation Department at 982-1352 ext. 55 or 56.

Proper use of drugs is vitally important to the health of unborn children, Mrs. Emrich said. Even aspirin can cause stomach defects if taken during the first three months of pregnancy, she

Miss Knox advised women to avoid use of tranquilizers even if they aren't pregnant. Women who took thalidomide before they realized they were pregnant had children with serious defects. The risk isn't worth taking, she said.

The March of Dimes supports birth defect centers at St. Bernadine Hospital and Loma Linda University. Both centers have diagnostic services and laboratory services for genetic counselling for young couples.

Through genetic counselling couples can learn their chances of having a child with inherited problems such as Testing is also available to check for incompatibility in the couples' Rh blood factors. Research by the national March of Dimes Foundation has developed a vaccination for mothers to prevent this incompatibility which had been responsible for many babies' deaths.

The March of Dimes also supports an intensive care nursery at San Bernardino County Medical Center where most high risk pregnancies are handled. The medical center has a team of specialists to care for infants in distress who can be transported in minutes from hospitals all over the county Loma Linda University recently received a grant from the March of Dimes to train nurses about midwifery.

The United States ranks 16th in the world in infant deaths. Deaths are much lower in countries such as Sweden which use midwives to fill the shortage of doc-

The grant was awarded to Dr. Dorothy Martin, recently deceased. The program to be continued by an associate, will be concentrated on an Indian reservation in San Bernardino County

Thirty-three per cent of locally raised funds go into national research to prevent and correct defects

New techniques include fetal surgery for correcting some defects before birth and fetal monitoring which closely checks the heart beat and respiration rates of unborn babies.

The national foundation also is work ing on birth defects which appear long after birth

Some, such as diabetes and Parkinson's Disease, may not appear until adulthood.

Donald Conway named to Upland Personnel Board

Donald G. Conway of Upland has been appointed to the Upland Personnel Board of Review of replace Robert Miller who recently moved from the city.

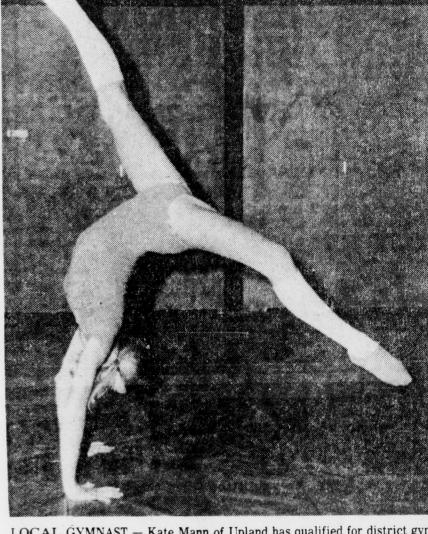

Board membership was updated to handle an anticipated appeal about a pending grievance, City Manager Lee

The grievance involves educational incentive pay for police officers.

Department. Fee for the 10-week class is $10.

LOCAL GYMNAST - Kate Mann of Upland has qualified for district gymnastic finals. In semifinals she placed fifth in vaulting and seventh in uneven parallel bars. Kate is a member of the Turners gymnastic team sponsored by the Upland Recreation Department and directed by Charles Klumpp and Mary Lou Lussier.

Council gives $750 to fight utility rates

Upland City Council appropriated $750 to a public interest group, Toward Utility Rate Normalization (TURN), to fight increased public utility rates.

Councilmen said the city has "a huge electrical bill" and is affected by rate increases as much as residents are

Mayor Abner Haldeman, who voted against the measure, said there are more business-like ways of protecting TURN would be most effective in delaying rate increases rather than preventing them, he said.

57 Uplanders awarded merit certificates

Chaffey College has presented certificates of merit to 57 Upland residents who earned perfect grades for the fall quarter.

They are Lynn Adamson, Joseph Ambros, James Anglin, Thomas Armstrong, William Arsenault, William Atterberry, Ricardo Barron, Stephanie Bartle, Robert Bartley, John Boal and Bruce Brewer.

Others are Kathleen Burnett, Irving Busse, Leslie Carnahan, Kenneth Carpenter, Betty Carroll, Pierre Chaldu. Denny George, Stephen Gordon, John Gray, Cheryl Hockaday, Janet Johnson, Allen Johnston, Robert Keeran, Mike Lytle, and Jerry Martinez.

City Manager Lee Travers said city support of TURN would show the PUblic Utilities Commission (PUC) that citizens are really concerned about rate 'Postponement doesn't solve problems," said Mayor Pro Tem John

McCarthy, who suggested petitioning Gov. Edmund Brown Jr. to appoint more responsive people to the PUC City attorney Donald Maroney said citizens will not have permanent relief from rate increases until PUC members are elected rather than appointed. Rate increases are complex and need to be evaluated by specialists that few cities can afford to hire. Councilman Hal Bailin said. TURN's experts could provide a valuable service, he said. TURN previously was funded by grants and donations. Upland's contribution will be used to oppose a proposed rate increase for Consolidated Edison

Job placement officer named at Chaffey

Sharon M. Beets of Upland has been appointed Chaffey College Student job placement officer

Her duties will include contacting businesses for job listings and coordinating campus programs about career planning, occupational education and work experience.

Previously Mrs. Beets managed the Chicago office of the Illinois Department of Conservation. She was personnel assistant at Community Memorial General Hospital, La Grange, Ill. and area coordinator for Illinois Gov. Dan Walker's 1971-72 campaign.

Mrs. Beets is a graduate of Park College, Missouri. Her husband Andrew is an executive at Sunkist Growers, Inc. They have two children, Andrew Jr. and

Shortages, surpluses

Area health study sets forth needs

A nine-month study by the Inland Counties Comprehensive Health Planning Council indicates that the West End has a shortage of primary care physicians and a surplus of beds for acute patients.

The ICCHPC was charged with the responsibility for developing health service plans for San Bernardino, Inyo and Mono Counties and for each community in the three

A planning task force was established for each health service area in the three

The 1975 health systems plan is a snapshot of how the system ooked in September of 1974 and is designed to reflect the broad aspects of a health care delivery system considered desirable for 1980

The West End Health Service Area includes the communities of Alta Loma, Chino, Cucamonga, Guasti, Montclair, Etiwanda, Los Serranos, Mt. Baldy, Ontario, Upland and the western border of Fontana.

The survey indicates that only about 44 per cent of the doctors in the WEHSA are general practitioners with the majority of the remainder practicing as specialists. The situation limits the availability of primary care physicians and amplifies the problem for Medi-Cal and Medicare patients, the survey concludes

According to the analysis of physicians, offices tend to cluster around the major hospital site, San Antonio Community Hospital In Upland, which makes accessability limited and difficult for those without private transportation.

A surplus of 233 beds for acute patients exists in the WEHSA, according to the study. The study indicates that the service area has 623 acute beds and the projected bed need for 1980 is 390

The plan calls for increasing the availability of primary care and encouragement of better utilization and less duplication of acute facilities. Suggestions include converting one of the five acute hospitals in the health service area (HSA) into on a 21/2-acre site will be essen- a rehabilitation center for chronic patients, cancer

A total of 966 building permits were issued in 1974, compared to 1,235 in 1973.

December was comparatively good month for building when compared to the entire year. Permits were issued for $162,940 worth of construction. This compares with $209,310 for the same month in 1973. The department issued 66 permits last month and 143 in December of 1973.

The major portion of the building permits issued last month were for stores and mercantile buildings, $78,000. Additions and alterations to non-residential buildings came next, $45,830. Dwelling additions and alterations accounted for $32,050 of the total.

The same three categories accounted for the bulk of the building during the entire year of 1974. Stores and mercantile buildings totaled $558,000 with $504,484 for additions and alterations to non-residential buildings and $386,702 for additions and alterations to dwellings.

buy special fire engine

The city of Upland is considering the purchase of a prototype brush rig fire engine from Lockheed.

The vehicle, used by Lockheed to develop the concept of a tank, pump and hoses on a skid mount to put in any appropriate truck, has been placed on the market for $9,500.

According to City Manager Lee Travers the vehicle is a sixwheel drive ex-military truck with a 1,000-gallon tank "which could be used by our fire department in fighting brush fires in lieu of sending our $70,-000 crown engines into rough country where, from time to time, we've had scares about getting them stuck and burned up while fighting brush fires."

Travers notes in his memo to city council members that "with the unit our other equipment could be kept on the road except in those cases where necessary to save structures." He points out that the city has the money available in its equipment replacement fund. The vehicle has been checked out by Upland fire personnel and mechanics and reportedly is in good operating condition. Upland council members will make a decision Monday at their regular 7 p.m. meeting.

Planners approve trailer site

SAN BERNARDINO (CNS) - An application for the establishment of a 157-space mobile home park and tennis court on a 19 acre site on the west side of Baker Street north of Arrow Route in Cucamonga has been approved by the County Planning Commission.

There was no opposition to the proposal at the hearing but a report from the planning staff noted there could be a substantial adverse impact on the local school district depending on the number of students that might live in the mobile home park. The staff report also noted that local traffic would be increased and that a traffic hazard might develop at the Baker Street entrance.

On the positive side the report noted that the project would increase the number of ow cost housing sites in the

In another matter concerning he Cucamonga area the commission approved the application of Soc-Co Plastic Company Inc., to engage in the application of protective coastings and linings to industrial equipment and to perform grit sand blasting on a 1/2 acre tract at Jersey Boulevard and the Sante Fe Railroad tracks.

Building permits were issued for the project last September before it was determined that site approval would be necessary. The building is already under construction.

rice, curry and coriander; saute until rice is browned, cups water, salt and black pepper. Bring to boiling point. Reduce heat; cover and simmer until rice is cooked about 20 minutes. Stir in beef, chicken and parsley flakes. Reheat until hot. Garnish with Egg Pancakes. If desired, serve with chutney, macadamia nuts, flaked coconut, raisins and sliced cucumbers.

*Egg Pancakes Lightly beat together 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon flour, 4 teaspoon salt and 1/8 teaspoon ground black pepper. Lightly brush a crepe pan or small skillet with oil; heat until hot. Add about 2 tablespoons of the egg mixture; swirl pan so that egg spreads to completely cover bottom; cook until golden on both sides. Roll up, then cut into thin slices.

Yield: 8 portions. Arroz con Pollo 1/4 cup instant chopped onion 1/4 cup green pepper flakes

Repeat until batter is used.

1/3 cup cold water 1/4 cup olive or salad oil bouillon 2 chicken

112 cups boiling water 1 can (1 lb. 12 oz.) tomatoes, broken up

1 cup raw processed rice 1 cup cubed cooked ham 1/4 cup sliced pitted green

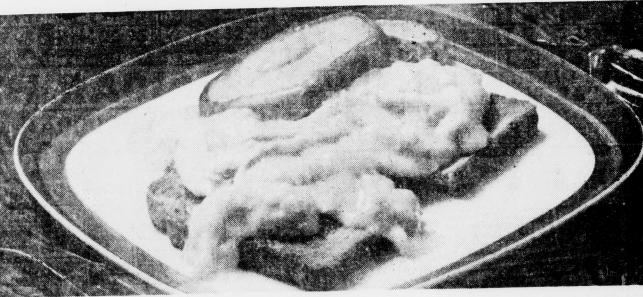

2 teaspoons salt 2 teaspoons oregano leaves, crumbled 1 teaspoon garlic powder 1/4 teaspoon ground black

4 cups cubed cooked chicken Rehydrate onion and green pepper flakes in cold water for 10 minutes. In a large skillet heat oil. Add onion and pepper flakes; saute until soft, about 5 minutes. Dissolve bouillon cubes in boiling water. Add to onion mixture with tomatoes, rice, ham, olives, salt, oregano, garlic powder and black pepper; mix well. Bring to boiling point; reduce heat. Cover and simmer until rice is cooked, about 20 minutes. Stir in chicken; heat until hot. Yield: 6 to 8 portions.

Good breakfast

A nourishing breakfast is a must for the school child, as it prevents mid-morning slump. Milk should always be included.

For a deliciously different light meal, this Curried Chicken Sandwich is sure to please. This also makes a real treat for a late supper when company arrives or serve for luncheon when the bridge gang comes.

Oatmeal is economy wise dish

If, like the rest of us, you're dedicated to making every last cent of your food dollars count, oatmeal is your dish. That's right! The century old cereal that climbed Mt. Everest with Hillary and nourished the astronauts in space is one of the best and least expensive sources of protein you can buy.

As a hearty hot breakfast, wholesome oatmeal costs about 3 cents per one oz. serving. Compare that with an average 9 cents each for eggs and almost 20 cents a serving for breakfast meats. And oatmeal is low in cholesterol and calories - a bonus for the body as well as the budget!

For economical main dishes, mix oatmeal with ground beef to extend the protein value and serving yield of meatloaf, burgers and meatballs. The cereal also is a budget baking ingredient and adds interesting texture to bread, rolls, muffins, pie crust and, of course, cookies.

Oatmeal is available in a variety of types to suit most every taste and time requirement. Oats, recalling the warmth of Grandma's kitchen, with the sharp, distinctively flavored, master cheese, which is called Danish Blue by most Americans, but always Danablu by the good Danes. (There's no bitter aftertaste to Danish Blue Cheese!)

In America where bean salad is a relative newcomer, we like to add canned garbanzo beans to the canned green beans. The Spaniards first brought the garbanzo beans to our Florida shores but if you can't find them in your market use the mellow flavored canned red kidney beans.

Going back to the cheese in this menu, which along with the beans makes this a vegetarian, high protein salad, we chose full-flavored Creamy Havarti to fill the rolls. However, other natural Danish cheeces such as Tybo or Samsoe would be fine choices as they melt beautifully when heated.

Danish Bean Salad

21/4 ounces Danish Blue Cheese, crumbled (or 1/2 cup loosely crumbled) up or whole green beans, welldrained 1 can (15 ½ ounces) garbanzo

2 cans (16-ounces each) cut-beans, well-drained 4 radishes, thinly sliced 1 medium-size onion, thinly sliced and separated into rings

3 stalks celery, sliced on a

Marinade: 2 cloves garlic, pressed into a pint glass jar with cover

1/4 cup tarragon vinegar 1/2 cup red wine vinegar, or half red and half wine vinegar 1/4 cup each olive oil and vegetable salad oil 1 tablespoon sugar 2 teaspoons salt

1/4 teaspoon coarsely ground

Gardens yield bounty

Vegetable gardens are flourishing throughout the country as more people 'grow it themselves' to save money. Also, the green thumb wave is an attempt to regain a closeness with Nature and experience flavors of truly fresh vegetables. When not eaten raw, zucchini and carrots from your garden make delightful cooked dishes. Baked Carrots 2 tablespoons margarine 1 tablespoon lemon juice

3 medium carrots 1 tablespoon water Chopped parsley Melt margarine. Stir in

1/4 teaspoon salt

lemon juice and salt. Pare carrots, then cut into 4-inch strips about 3 inches long. Arrange in small baking dish; add water. Pour margarine mixture over carrots. Cover. Bake in 350-degree oven until carrots are tender, 50 to 60 minutes. Sprinkle with parsley. Makes 2 servings.

Panned Zucchini 2 medium zucchini (about 1/2

1 tablespoon corn oil 1 small onion, sliced 1 fresh tomato, peeled and cut

1/4 teaspoon pepper basil

1 teaspoon salt

Scrub zucchini and cut into 1inch slices. Heat corn oil in cups crushed fruit; turn into medium skillet. Saute onion un- bowl. Add sugar and corn til lightly browned. Add zuc- syrup; stir thoroughly. Mix chini, tomato, salt, pepper and lemon juice and pectin, pour basil. Cover and simmer 10 to over peach mixture; stir three 15 minutes or until zucchini is minutes. Leaving one quarter tender. The peach crop is at its peak. Even though lovers of this tart- at least 24-hour period. Remove sweet fruit indulge themselves from freezer as needed and to the fullest while the fresh fruit is at its tasty best, it is always a pleasure to have a few jars of jams and jellies put up for the fall and winter months. A different approach to canning fresh peaches is to make jam and store the jams in the freezer. Peach freezer jam (about) then can be removed from the freezer, placed in the refrigerator to thaw for use when needed. Recipes for peach freezer jam are for both powdered and liquid fruit pectin. Peach Freezer Jam (using liquid fruit pectin) 2 pounds fully ripe peaches (about)

3 cups sugar 1 cup light corn syrup 4 cup lemon juice 1/2 (6 ounce) bottle liquid fruit pectin

Budget cutbacks cause problems

By SYLVIA PORTER

To help hold down what seems destined to be the biggest budget deficit since World War II, a whole generation ago, the White House is proposing deep slashes in socio-economic programs, particularly food stamps, Medicare and Social Security

The red ink splattering the fiscal '76 budget is unquestionably frightening. Instead of the near balance hoped for, the deficit could swell to as high as $35 billion. beating the previous post-war peak of $25.2 billion in fiscal '68. Tax cuts, new spending programs and a continuing deterioration in the economy actually could send our budget out of control.

But slashes in these vital programs for our poor, sick and elderly while the defense budget is deemed uncuttable beyond token reductions already publicized? Where are our priorities?

Consider the proposed food stamp regulations, for instance — under which every food stamp family would be required to pay a full 30 per cent of the cost of the food stamps they receive. Since less than 1 per cent of recipients today are considered able to pay this much, the very neediest families in our land would suffer terribly. An estimated 1,500,000 would be forced to drop out of the program. Official projections of savings of $645 million a year in federal funds would translate into direct, out-ofpocket losses to more than 95 per cent of those getting

And not only would food stamp families be hit hard; so would the thousands of communities in which they live. Today's average food stamp recipient gets a "bonus" of $20.70 a month in federal money — an "average" bonus for a family of four of $82.80 a month. This is money pumped directly into the economy of the community every month, for it goes into much more than food-

It actually ripples out through all segments of the local economy because it frees up spending money for other goods and services (the so-called "multiplier" effect). For every 1,000 people cut out of the food stamp program, the community would lose nearly $20,000 a month. Against today's background of deepening economic slump and rapidly rising unemployment, cutbacks of this sort have national implications.

What's more, the slashes are being proposed at a time when the poorest Americans among us already are staggering under soaring food and fuel prices - increases with which food stamp allotments have not kept pace. In fact, a newly published study by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare's Office of Income Security Policy concludes that the impact of today's inflation on the poor is 20 per cent greater than on the middle income family-primarily because the poor spend a disproportionately large share of their incomes on food

The upward adjustment in the food stamp program which became effective this past Jan. — from $150 of food stamps available each month to a family of four to $154 a month - was based on food price increases which occurred between February and August 1974. But by last October, the cost of the Department of Agriculture's economy food plan-the bare-bones basis for figuring food stamp allotments-was already up to $156 and this total is now much higher.

As 1975 wears on, everybody getting food stamps will fall more and more behind.

Under the circumstances, it's scarcely surprising that major campaigns are under way to undo the new regulations before they are slated to take effect Mar. 1.

In Congress, spearheading the drive are Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D.-Minn.) and Sen. George McGovern (D.-S.D.), chairman of the Senate Nutrition Committee. Says Humphrey: "The President's program makes the entire food stamp program a cruel hoax.

-In New York, the Food Research and Action Center is challenging the new USDA regulations in court. Says Jeff Kirsch, staff member of the FRAC: "This amounts to a new tax on the poor; those least able to pay are being asked to bear the heaviest burden of inflation." The basis for the FRAC's suit is that while the 1964 Food Stamp Act states that the amount charged for the stamps shall be "reasonable," 30 per cent in this area is not "resonable." Proof is that less than 1 per cent of stamp families now pay as much as 30 per cent: they can't afford to.

There's never. been a better time to shop Thrifty

Nowadays, high prices are one thing you can do without.

So we do without a few things to make sure our prices stay low.

For one, we keep our staff lean. You won't find a lot of clerks hovering over you like in other stores.

We don't have dressing rooms in our clothing departments. That valuable floor space is better filled with the things you need.

We don't have 112 different styles to choose from. When we buy, we buy the most popular, best-selling styles in big quantities. So we don't have a lot of non-selling items collecting dust. That would cost us - so it would cost you.

What we do have are the things that count.

Prices that help take some of the cost out of living.

Convenient hours, so you can get what you need when you need it.

Over 450 stores to serve you, so you don't have to drive very far.

And sixty separate departments, with everything from auto supplies to school supplies. Cosmetics to camping gear.

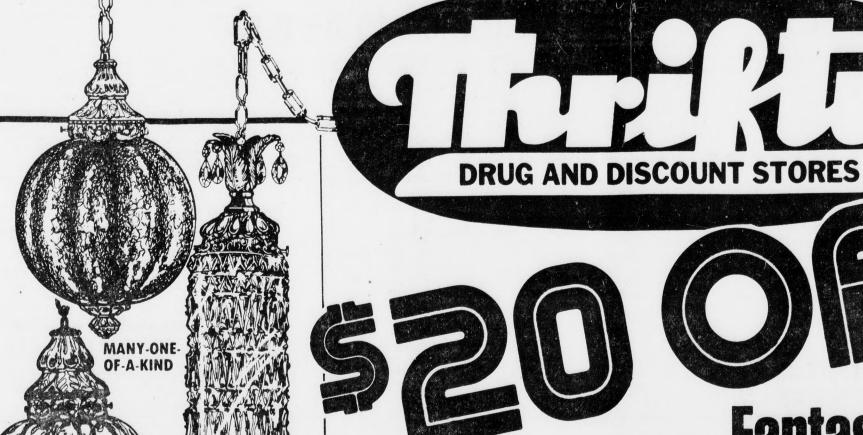

The way things are now, we think you shouldn't have to pay for extras you can't take home with you.

Which is why Thrifty is more than our name.

It's our philosophy.

A proposed new comprehensive regional transportation plan - one which could affect the mobility of more than 10 million Southern California residents - will be the subject of a major public hearing by the Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG) on Jan. 30, announced Jarvey Gilbert, SCAG president.

To be held at the Sheraton West Hotel (Regency Room), 2961 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, the hearing will be conducted by the SCAG Executive Committee in two sessions to make it more convenient for the public to attend, one at 1:30 p.m. and another at :30 p.m., Gilbert said.

FOR SALE: 114 ACRES SAN DIMAS, CA.

ARROW TH SAN DIMAS LA VERNE CALIF. STATE COLLEGE FIELD BONNELLI STATE SAN JOSE RECREATION HILLS AREA FOREST (10) MEMORIAL PARK MAYAL ORDINANCE PLANT

LOCATION - The subject parcel is located within the City of San Dimas, approximately 25 miles easterly of downtown Los Angeles.

ACCESS - The parcel is in close proximity to a full ramp system of the Foothill Freeway at Via Verde Drive. The Foothill-San Bernardino Freeway interchange is just southeasterly of the subject property providing ready accessibility in every direction to the entire southland population areas. Additionally the irregular westerly property side is bounded by dedicated San Dimas Ave. which could provide a variety of access connections for develop-

VIEW-The sale parcel is higher than much of the recreation area. Seller believes that a substantial number of desirable view sites are potentially developable.

SCHOOLS - Calif. Polytechnic State University at

Pomona (Cal-Poly) Voorhis and Kellogg units and Mt. San Antonio College are nearby as are element of the sale property. .

mentary and secondary public schools. SHOPPING - The Eastland shopping center is located approximately 3 miles westerly featuring major department stores, restaurants, etc.

NEARBY DEVELOPMENTS—One mile westerly is the beautiful residential community of Via Verde, featuring above average to luxury type homes, and the Via Verde Country Club.

ZONING—The sale property is currently unzoned. It is the seller's understanding from discussions with the Planning Department of the City of San Dimas that the City considers low density residential uses appropriate for the sale parcel. The seller believes that the City has a preference for a cluster-type development, if economically feasible, and would also consider a single-family residential development. Prospective buyers are urged to review proposed uses with the City of San Dimas Planning Department.

RECREATION-The Frank G. Bonnelli Regional County Park is located easterly across the Foothill Freeway featuring boating, picnicking, and other recreational activities. Adjacent to the park are the Mountain Meadows Public Golf Course and the L.A. County Fairgrounds.

ENGINEERING DEVELOPMENT STUDY - The seller has commissioned an engineering development study of the sale parcel by the Civil Engineering firm of HOPEN, HEDLUND & DARBY. This study includes maps of the preliminary engineering layout and grading plan and the estimated amounts and costs of offsite improvements. Seller believes that the engineering study reliably represents the sale property as of the date prepared. However, seller does NOT warrant accuracy of the report and the buyer should review and update the report for his own reliance. Copies of this report are available from the seller at a nominal charge of

> SALE DATE-April 23, 1975 MINIMUM BID-$450,000.00

OPTION - Buyer may elect to use the 12 month option period with a required bid deposit of 10% of actual bid plus $500.00. Entire balance due April 23, 1976 in cash or financing may be arranged as set forth in the "Terms of Option to Purchase" (see sales brochure). A six month extention is also available after April 23, 1976 for an additional 5% which is applicable toward purchase price.

torian female to exhibit the family's prosperity. The jewels she wore were the mark of her husband's business ability. They were his status symbols displaying. The era was one of prosperity and progress. Queen Victoria loved jewelry and by example reign, from 1837 to 1901, jewelry fashions underwent rapid style changes.

Earrings are an example. Between 1837 and 1840 long earrings were worn with evening dress. Then for a decade almost none were worn covered the ears. About 1850 earrings began to regain the public's fancy but remained small until about 1865 when and fashion. they again began to grow in length. By 1870 they had women were told never to wear

It was a function of the Vic- reached such proportions that rings on their fingers unless bonnets had to be made without strings to avoid tangling with the earrings. Small earrings again became the vogue in 1876.

Styles can be categorized as which she delighted in the Romantic period, 1837-1860, the Grand period, 1860-1885, and the Aesthetic period, 1885-1901. In the 1880s with the beginning of university encouraged its use. During her education and women's suffrage, Victorian ladies began to question their roles as ornamental rather than useful members of society. But until the latter part of the century jewelry was an essential part of the upper-and middleclass woman's since hair styles completely costumes. What she wore, how she wore it and when it was worn were strictly dictated by experts on beauty, etiquette

Among the dictates - young they wanted to appear older. Jewels were out of place in promenade or carriage dress. Hair jewelry was out in 1898 but highly prized in 1853. Diamonds were the prerogative of the married woman and young women were advised against wearing precious stones. The finest, intended for royalty and the very wealthy, is
